HALF PRICE ACCOMMODATION IN LAUNCESTON, TASMANIA

For Semester 1, 2019 we're offering 50% OFF accommodation to eligible students* studying the Bachelor of Business, Master of Professional Accounting, and Master of Professional Accounting (Specialisation) at our Launceston campus.

What does the bursary include?

- Singles only university accommodation at either Kerslake, Leprena or Investigator Hall in Launceston
- A fifty percent discount on the advertised weekly singles accommodation rate for a minimum of 42 weeks (your first academic year) and up to 2 years

Make sure to read the Terms and Conditions for all the details and eligibility requirements!

How to apply

Great news - there is no separate application form to complete!

Simply apply to study one of the three eligible degrees commencing in semester 1, 2019, apply for and pay the deposit fee for accommodation at one of the three university halls of residence listed above, and when you receive an offer to study your degree, accept and pay your commencement fee outlined in your Letter of Offer. It's as simple as that!

Why study in Launceston

One of Australia's oldest cities known for its elegant colonial architecture, Launceston is now home to a vibrant arts and culture scene. In this very affordable city you'll have a relaxed environment to focus on your studies and some of Tasmania's most famous attractions on your doorstep when you need a break from the books.

Don't miss out!

Spaces are limited! Apply for your course and accommodation now and accept your offer to avoid missing out!
